Calling Bay Area Artists!

Are you interested in having an exhibition of your work at the Library? Every year the Library Art Committee holds an Art Jury to select exhibits for the following year. This year's jury will be held in October, and we invite you to submit one 2D entry representative of your work, along with your website and/or photos of your body of work to be considered for a possible month-long solo show in 2018 in the Founders Room Gallery of the Library.

Submission Schedule:
Wednesday, October 11, 1pm-6pm
Thursday, October 12, 10am-3pm

Guidelines:

- Bring one framed two-dimensional entry; various mediums welcomed
- Website or photos of additional work
- Resumé and/or artist statement
- Artist Notification: Email sent Friday afternoon, October 13
- Mandatory Art Retrieval: Saturday, October 14, 10am-1pm

Richard Rozen

Upcoming Art Exhibits in the Founders Room

Receptions are held 6pm-8pm
first Tuesday of Exhibits except as noted

Louise Forbush, Collages on Wood

September 25 – October 19
Artist Talk: Sunday, October 1, 2pm-4pm

Diane Green, Oil Paintings

October 23 – November 16
Artist Talk: Tuesday, October 24, 7pm
Reception: Thursday, October 26, 6pm

Bob Hemstock, Photography

November 21 – December 14

Holiday Exhibit and Event:

Library Art Committee Members Show December 18 – January 7

The Library Art Committee Event is a first to pool the creative talent of this group of dedicated volunteers. The reception on Dec. 19 will be a lively holiday party, with delicious hors d'oeuvres, and walls hung with 2D works including quilts, photography, paintings and fabric art. Drop by to see old friends and meet new ones.

Note: Your exhibited art must be available for sale. The Library retains 20% of the sales, which will be designated for art book purchases. The Committee will co-host an opening reception and provide wine and sparkling water, but requires guest artists to actively market their shows and to provide appetizers at the reception in lieu of an entry fee. The Art Committee will coordinate local marketing of the show.

News and Reviews to Peruse as you Choose (for free!)

Consumer Reports: The Library now offers a new and improved online version of Consumer Reports. Accessible from inside the Library and at home, the new Consumer Reports interface allows you to search for individual products by name or browse different product categories, which can be arranged and filtered according to criteria such as price and overall score. It is continuously updated with the newest reviews, current trends and technologies, and can be accessed on the Library's website under the Do Research heading as well as at the address:
beltiblibrary.org/resource/consumer-reports. This version of Consumer Reports even works on your mobile phone or tablet, allowing you to compare products while you're at the store or on-the-go!

New York Times: Enjoy unlimited, complimentary access to the New York Times on the web or through the NYTimes app. Access can be from anywhere, from any device. When you're at the library simply log in to your NYT account (it's free to create) for unlimited access. Outside the library, use a remote pass that is good for unlimited access for a 72-hour period. The pass can be reused as many times as you like.

To get started:

- Visit the library website: www.beltiblibrary.org/nytimes
- Click on "Access the New York Times from home!"
- A code will appear in a box. Click on the Redeem button.
- Create an account (username and password) or log in if you have already created a library account.
